St. Luke news

By LOUISE CANADA

Sunday, July 10 was a great day for the folks at St. Luke Baptist Church. At 3:30 p.m. the new pastor, the Rev. R. R. Jones, was installed.

The Rev. S. C. Terry presided at the installation ceremony. Words of welcome were given by Mrs. Louise M. Canada, and the installation message was delivered by the Rev. James H. Franklin, Jr., pastor of the Sharon Baptist Church. This was a joyous day for all.

The Sharon Junior Choir delivered the soul-stirring music. Each auxiliary of the church gave a special gift to the pastor. The church presented him with a lovely robe and a beautiful cake. Refreshments were served in the dining area of the church. All returned home after a very happy day.

The church was full for preaching service on Sunday, July 17. Baptism was performed at 11 a.m. The Rev. Alvin Jones, assisting the Rev. R. R. Jones, came forward with the message, "The House of Mercy." Before the sermon, he delivered a solo, "One of These Days."

The Young Ushers were at their posts, and the Senior Choir delivered the music.

The St. Luke Church congregation is already planning for their homecoming, which will be held the first Sunday in August.

Mrs. Chesting Nance and her granddaughter, Jereta, are visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Tweedy.

Kataqua and Sha Canada have returned home after spending time in Richmond with her uncle and aunt, Deacon and Mrs. Alfred Canada, and some cousins.

Mrs. H. Claytor has returned home after having a cataract removed from her right eye. Mrs. Louise Canada was with her at the time.

Scouts camp out

Girls Scouts in Appomattox learned first hand last week about the business of 'camping out.'

A total of 44 girls were registered for the Appomattox Girl Scout Day Camp that was held from July 18 until July 22. The group attended each day from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. and on Thursday night they camped out overnight.

In addition to the 44 girl scouts, 11 leaders attended the activities,

Good News for Homemakers

The latest word on 'unfrenched' fries

By SHIRLEY W. WALTON
Extension Agent

UN-FRENCHED FRIES

Hot dogs and hamburgers are synonymous with summertime outdoor living. However, during the summer potato chips usually take the place of french fries. Remember, potato chips are very thin and do not have the nutrition packed in them that a potato has.

On a picnic it's understandable that potato chips will be easier to take and serve. But, for the backyard barbecue we do have a choice.

The statement, "Nothing can beat the taste of real french fries," is one that we hear potato lovers say over and over. Those delicious, fresh cut potatoes deep fried in oil to a golden crispness on the outside are indeed delicious. And inside they are steamy hot and freshly cooked. If you choose to deep fat fry, you may wish to try soybean oil (be sure when serving foods fried in soybean oil that family members are not allegic to legumes). Soybean oil is a good choice for frying because it has a high smoke point which means it can withstand temperatures up to 400° without smoking. In fact, 85% of the food service industry uses soybean oil for frying.

For perfect french fried potatoes, make sure the potatoes are dry because water will cause the oil to spatter. Potatoes should be at room temperature because cold foods will lower the oil temperature dramatically. The secret to perfect frying is to have the oil at correct temperature. For potatoes, 375°-400° Fahrenheit is recommended.

However, would you like another choice for french fries. If so, why not try doing oven baked fries. This can be the solution to frying inside when the temperature on the outside is more than a 100°. With a slight change in preparation and ingredients, you can still break the potato chip routine and serve nutritious, delicious potatoes for your backyard barbecue.

Several weeks ago I did an article about potatoes in your diet. Remember that potatoes are excellent sources of many nutrients, reasonably low in calories (it's what we put on the potatoes that cause them to climb in calories).

If you have a homemaking question or problem, you may call 352-8244 or write P.O. Box 488, Appomattox, Va. 24522.

Have a good week.

RECIPES OF THE WEEK

Oven Ranch Fries

6 medium, all-purpose potatoes
⅓ cup soybean oil margarine
seasoned salt

Scrub potatoes and do not peel. Quarter each potato and toss with melted margarine. Place skin side down on cookie sheet and sprinkle with seasoned salt. Bake at 375° 30 to 40 minutes or until potatoes are tender. This makes 4 to 6 servings. Note: Soybean oil margarine also has a higher smoke point than other margarines.

Jose's Potato Wedges

⅓ cup soybean oil margarine, melted
4 unpeeled potatoes, washed and cut into 1 inch wedges
1¼ ounce package taco seasoning mix
3 Tablespoons seasoned bread crumbs

Coat potato wedges in margarine. Combine taco seasoning mix and bread crumbs in a plastic or paper bag. Place margarine coated potato wedges in bag and shake until coated with mixture. Place potato wedges in foil lined baking sheet. Drizzle any remaining margarine over potatoes or seasoning mix. Bake at 350° for 40-45 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

Birth announced

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. McCormick, Jr., are the proud parents of a seven-pound 12-ounce daughter, Kimberly Dawn, born June 23, 1983 at 4:41 p.m.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dennis McCormick, Sr., and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bailey D. McCormick, Sr., all of Gladstone.

Maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bryant of Buckingham.

Paternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burks, of Gladstone.

McWilliams and Carter receive draft board duties

Mr. Robert W. McWilliams of Appomattox has been appointed by the Director of Selective Service, in the name of the President, to serve as a member of Virginia standby Selective Service Local Board No. 45.

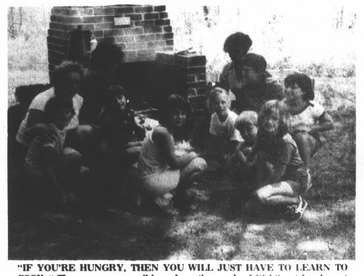
Mr. McWilliams is a retired Utilities Engineer from GAF Corporation and is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Mr. Robert Wayne Carter of Appomattox has been appointed by the Director of Selective Service, in the name of the President, to serve as a member of Virginia standby Selective Service Appeal Board for the Western District of Virginia.

Mr. Carter is an attorney-at-law in Appomattox. In addition, he is a member of the Lion's Club, American Bar Association, Virginia State Bar Association, Appomattox County Republican Party, the Tenth Judicial Bar Association, the Virginia Trial Lawyer's Association and the PTA.

Although there is no present authority to classify or induct men into the military, the selection and training of standby Local and Appeal Board members gives the Selective Service System increased capability to meet mobilization requirements in the event of a national emergency.

Another important part of the revitalization of the Selective Service System is the federal law which requires young men (born on or after 1 January 1960) to register with Selective Service thirty days before or after their 18th birthday. They may register at any U.S. Post Office. Registration is quick, it's easy and it's the law.



"IF YOU'RE HUNGRY, THEN YOU WILL JUST HAVE TO LEARN TO COOK." These may very well have been the words of Girl Scout Leaders at recent Girl Scout Camp-Out as approximately 44 girls and leaders headed for the out-of-doors for a three-day stay. (Photo by Bill Sherrod.)

along with a Small Fry Unit, which consisted of seven boys who accompanied leaders to the camp.

The camp was located on the grounds of the St. Anne's Episcopal Church and the theme for the campout was "We've Found A New World." From the beginning with Columbus discovering America, to our present day technology including rockets, and computers they had a good time reviewing it all.

Activities of the group included making jelly over an open fire, learning about telephones, singing songs, watching computer demonstration, hiking, making musical instruments and learning camping skills.

Director for the activities was Jeanette Drinkard and co-director was Deborah Jamerson.

Leaders for the activities were Darlene Franklin, Susan Barr, Leslie Humbles, Diane Gilliam, Brenda Caswell, Elizabeth Broch ard, Connie Sandman, Ellen Armentrout and Wanda Daley.

Junior Cadettes and Senior Scouts are Denise Drinkard, Tracy Doody, Jennifer Jamerson, Crystal Allen, Angela Harris, Joetrica Humbles, Roxanne Williams, Ginger Bryant, Allison Gilliam, Lucille Lewis, Tanya Brochard.

Also, Michelle Carwile, Kathy Torrence, Annette Caswell, Anne Phennix, Amanda Franklin, Morlisa Mosley, Jane Armentrout and Pattie Wright.

Brownie Scouts were Robin Roberson, Amy Barr, Teresa Franklin, Monica Franklin, Melanie Hudson, Kerri Brochard, Jodi Young-blood, Shelia Daley, Jeannie Brochard, Laura Williams, Nikki Harris, Stacy O'Brien, Susan Carson, Nikki Hudson, Tracy Gilliam, Jenny Sandman, Mary Kay Wright, Kenya Waddridge.

The Small Fry Unit was composed of Brian Jamerson, Jeffrey Franklin, Matthew Sandman, Chad Brochard, Archay Humbles, Shawn Caswell, Michael Daley.
